

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE
& CONSUMER SERVICES
ANNUAL PUBLIC REPORT
SOLICITATION OF CONTRIBUTIONS

July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2023

The Department of Agriculture & Consumer Services (“department”) was given the authority to administer Chapter 496, Florida Statutes, the Solicitation of Contributions Act (“Act”), on January 1, 1992. The Act requires anyone who solicits contributions in or from the state of Florida to register with the department and to renew annually.

The Act applies to charitable organizations, sponsors, professional solicitors, and professional fundraising consultants. Registration of each officer, trustee, or owner of a professional solicitor and any employee of a professional solicitor conducting telephonic solicitations in which a donor’s or potential donor’s personal information is requested or provided is required. Such an individual may not receive such license if, within the past 10 years, that person has been convicted of, been found guilty of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, a felony involving fraud, theft, larceny, embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or misappropriation of property, or a crime arising from the conduct of a solicitation, or has been enjoined in any state from violating a law relating to a charitable solicitation.

The provisions of the Act do not apply to bona fide religious institutions, educational institutions, state agencies or other government entities, or persons or organizations that solicit or act as professional fundraising consultants solely on their behalf. It does not apply to blood establishments as defined in s. 381.06014(1)(a), Florida Statutes. Persons soliciting for a named individual, organizations that limit solicitations to their membership only, and veterans’ service organizations chartered under Title 36, United States Code, are exempt from the registration requirements of the Act, although other provisions of the Act may be applied as needed.

The legislative intent of the Act and the charge to the department is to protect the public by requiring full disclosure of the identity of persons who solicit contributions from the public, the purposes for which such contributions are solicited, and the manner in which the contributions are used. The information amassed by the department is used to assist the public in making knowledgeable, informed decisions concerning their contributions. The Act is enforced to prohibit unlawful, deceptive, fraudulent, and misrepresentative solicitations to the public.

This report is the department’s response to the statutory mandate of s. 496.423(4), Florida Statutes.

Public Information:

The department maintains an online Check-A-Charity tool, which can be found at www.FloridaConsumerHelp.com. Check-A-Charity is a resource that provides financial information in real time for charitable organizations and sponsors registered with the department, including the breakdown of expenses by program service costs, fundraising costs, and administrative costs. A unique legislative appropriation provided the department funding to develop an addition to Check-A-Charity which allows access to detailed financial information and application details as filed with the department, also in real time. This enhanced the department's ability to fulfill the legislative intent of the Act to protect the public.

A companion publication to Check-A-Charity is a pamphlet entitled Tips for Consumers Giving to Charities. Copies of this pamphlet are distributed to the public at numerous events attended by department staff. They are also provided to anyone free upon request. This publication can be found on the website at www.FloridaConsumerHelp.com.

More detailed information concerning charities, professional solicitors, or professional fundraising consultants may be obtained by calling the department's helpline at 1-800-HELP-FLA. The department received 17,005 inquiries about charities through the Consumer Assistance Center helpline during fiscal year 2022/2023. Additional calls were received by program staff on their direct lines.

Additionally, the department's public outreach group routinely speaks to groups about the importance of checking the registration status and reviewing the financial information of a charity prior to donating. They provide valuable information to the public to assist in making informed decisions about charitable giving.

Enforcements:

Attachment A provides a list of enforcements for fiscal year 2022/2023 and the disposition of each. There were 835 enforcement actions taken by the department during the fiscal year.

Complaints:

Attachment B provides a list of complaints related to the Solicitation of Contributions Act for fiscal year 2022/2023 and the disposition of each. There were 171 complaints filed with the department during this period.

Audited Financial Records:

Attachment C is a list of 2,599 charitable organizations and sponsors who submitted an audited financial statement with their registration or renewal during fiscal year 2022/2023. Some of these were voluntary submissions, while others were in response to statutory requirements.
