This report is submitted to the Administrative Procedures

Committee and to the Administration Commission in compliance with the requirements of Section 120.65(10), Florida Statutes, which provides:

Not later than February 1 of each year, the division shall issue a written report to the Administrative Procedures Committee and the Administration Commission, including at least the following information:

- (a) A summary of the extent and effect of agencies' utilization of administrative law judges, court reporters, and other personnel in proceedings under this chapter.
- (b) Recommendations for change or improvement in the Administrative Procedure Act or any agency's practice or policy with respect thereto.

GENERAL

The Division of Administrative Hearings administers two programs. One, which is the subject of this report, is the Adjudication of Disputes program that operates pursuant to Chapter 120, Florida Statutes. The other is the Workers' Compensation Appeals program, Office of Judges of Compensation Claims (OJCC), that operates pursuant to Chapter 440, Florida Statutes. Section 440.45(5), Florida Statutes, requires the OJCC to issue an annual report to the Governor, the House of Representatives, the Senate, the Florida Bar, and the statewide nominating commission. This report was submitted on December 4, 2003. Accordingly, the present report will focus primarily on the Adjudication of Disputes program. However, because the headquarters element of the Division must support both programs, this report necessarily must include some information addressing the OJCC.

UTILIZATION RATES

Appendix I breaks out by agency the utilization rates of Division resources and demonstrates, in descending order, that 12 agencies utilized 95 percent of the Division's docket: the Agency for Health Care Administration, the Department of Management Services, the Department of Health, the Department of Financial Services, the Department of Education, the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department of Environmental Protection, the Department of Community Affairs, the Department of Revenue, the Department of Transportation, and the Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles. Additionally, contract agencies such as water management districts, cities, and counties have become continuing users of the Division's services and are reported separately since they are covered by contractual agreements. School districts and other educational entities are also continuing users and are reported separately as well.

The analysis of agency requests for Administrative Law

Judges will be reported by fiscal year instead of calendar year, as has been detailed in prior annual reports. During FY 2002-03, State agencies and governmental entities referred 4,305 requests for assignment of Administrative Law Judges compared to 4,538 requests filed the previous fiscal year. Although there was a slight decrease in the number of cases filed, we are currently experiencing an upward trend: approximately 2,400 new cases have been filed during the first half of FY 2003-04. The Department of Environmental Protection's new case referrals increased 40 percent, from 88 cases filed in FY 2001-02 to 123 cases filed in FY 2002-03. Referrals from the Department of Education increased by 89 percent, from 140 cases filed in FY 2001-02 to 265 cases filed in FY 2002-03. Significant to this increase was the number of cases filed by the Education Practices Commission and the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services, which increased by 104 percent and 65 percent, respectively. School Board requests for hearings involving placement issues of Exceptional Education students increased as well, at 15 percent when 315 cases were filed in FY 2002-03, compared to 275 cases filed the previous year. These are expedited cases in which the Division issues final orders. Notable filings by the Department of Revenue include the administrative establishment of child support obligation cases, a successful program that was initiated as a pilot in Volusia County on July 1, 2001. This program was expanded statewide in 2002, pursuant to Chapter No. 2002-239, Laws of Florida. Forty-eight new cases were assigned in FY 2002-03 compared with 38 new cases filed the prior fiscal year. This caseload continues to grow, with 66 child support cases filed during the first half of FY 2003-04.

UTILIZATION OF PERSONNEL

The Adjudication of Disputes program has 78 established positions comprised of the Director and Chief Judge, the Deputy Chief Judge, 35 Administrative Law Judges, seven Administrative Secretaries, four Administrative Assistants, one Budget Officer, one Executive Assistant, three Staff Assistants, three Court Reporters (see page 6), one Administrative Services Director, one Personnel Officer, one Purchasing Agent, one Accountant, one Storekeeper, one Data Base Administrator, one Office Automation Specialist, one Distributed Computer Systems Specialist, one Secretary Specialist, one Division Clerk, two Deputy Clerk Supervisors, three Deputy Clerks, one Fiscal Assistant, one Clerk Specialist, and five Clerks.

The Workers' Compensation Appeals program has 197 established positions comprised of one Deputy Chief Judge of Compensation Claims, 31 Judges of Compensation Claims, 31
General Masters (mediators), 31 Executive Secretaries, 31 Deputy Clerks in field offices, two Deputy Clerk Supervisors, six Deputy Clerk IIs and five Deputy Clerks in the Clerk's Office, three Administrative Assistants, two Staff Assistants, 34

Administrative Secretaries, nine Secretary Specialists, three

Senior Clerks, one Senior Management Analyst, one Operations

Management Consultant, two Accountants, one Distributed Computer

Systems Administrator, two Distributed Computer Systems

Analysts, and one Attorney.

IN-HOUSE COURT REPORTERS

The Division employed three full-time court reporters in an In-House Court Reporting Program. This Program provided court reporters to state agencies for hearings held in Tallahassee.

Appendix 2 indicates that these reporters produced a total of 22,183 pages of transcription for FY 2002-03 and generated revenue in excess of $29,374.95.

After an in-depth review and analysis of the cost, it was determined that the cost of the program, over both the short-run and the long-run, exceeded the benefits. Accordingly, the In-House Court Reporter Program was terminated effective January 1, 2004. The three positions will be eliminated along with the corresponding expense in the Division's legislative budget request for FY 2004-05.

HEARING REQUESTS

During FY 2002-03, the Division processed 4,305 hearing requests compared to 4,538 cases filed the previous fiscal year.

Of the total cases filed, 1,236 were Baker Act cases. The remaining 3,069 cases were filed pursuant to Sections 120.56, 120.569, and 120.57(1), Florida Statutes. The cases opened are itemized by agency in the attached Appendix 3.

Significant to the overall referral decrease were Baker Act cases, where a patient's continued involuntary confinement in a mental institution is at issue. In FY 2002-03, there were only 1,236 Baker Act cases referred compared to 1,350 cases referred the previous fiscal year, a decrease of 114 cases or eight percent. Significant decreases in other agency referrals have not been noted here but are contained in Appendix 3.

In FY 2002-03, each Administrative Law Judge conducted an average of 72 hearings and wrote an average of 65 recommended or final orders of varying length and complexity. In addition, each Judge closed an average of 131 cases.

OFFICE AUTOMATION

The Division maintains two mission-critical databases and applications: the DOAH Case Management System (CMS) and the OJCC Case Management System (JCC). Associated applications include full-text retrieval and document indexing of orders issued by the Division's Administrative Law Judges. Both databases are accessible via the Division's two websites, www.doah.state.fl.us and www.jcc.state.fl.us. Secondary applications include word processing, electronic mail and online legal research via Westlaw and other Internet resources.

In 2003, the Division began accepting electronic filing of pleadings from a small test group for both the Adjudication of Disputes program and the Workers' Compensation Appeals program. The availability of electronic filing will be expanded in the immediate future.

OPERATING BUDGET

The Division is 100 percent trust funded. Appendix 4 summarizes the actual, estimated, and requested expenditures for the Division's programs for FY 2002-03, FY 2003-04, and FY 2004-05, respectively.

For the Adjudication of Disputes program, each year the Division reports to the Legislature and the Governor's Office the total number of hearing hours scheduled by all agencies.

Based on this data, the Division's budget is prorated among the agencies utilizing its services, and the Legislature appropriates fund transfers to the Division from those agencies. Hence, the amount each agency transfers to the Division is based on the number of hours it schedules for pre-hearing conferences, motion hearings, final hearings, and cancelled hearings in a given year. Beginning in FY 2003-04, data on cancelled and continued hearings will be excluded from the report and the agency transfer calculations under the theory that the agencies should not be penalized for encouraging the resolution of disputes short of proceeding to hearing. In September 2003, the Division submitted its seventeenth report (see Appendix 1). In FY 2002-03, 34,908 hearing hours were scheduled with the Division.

The Division is also authorized to enter into contracts with cities, counties, regional planning councils, water management districts, and other organizations for the provision of Administrative Law Judge services. These organizations, as well as school districts and other educational entities, reimburse the Division for the costs of these services at the current contract rate and in accordance with applicable laws. The Division is actively seeking additional contracts with counties, municipalities, and quasi-governmental entities in order to lessen the burden of funding the Division on state agencies.

The Workers' Compensation Appeals program is supported by cash transfers from the Workers' Compensation Administration

Trust Fund that is administered by the Department of Financial Services.

RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING THE A.P.A.

The Division closely follows judicial decisions concerning the application and interpretation of the Administrative Procedure Act. The Division clearly recognizes that it must remain fair and impartial in all matters affecting the agencies and private parties that come before it for adjudication of their disputes. However, pursuant to its statutory mandate in Section 120.65(10)(b), Florida Statutes, the Division is required to make recommendations for changes or improvements in the APA "or any agency's practice or policy with respect thereto." Accordingly, the Division presents the following issue concerning the late filing of requests for administrative hearings as part of this Annual Report.

Two District Courts of Appeal have specifically requested that the Legislature consider whether to make the doctrine of excusable neglect applicable to administrative proceedings once again. Prior to 1998, an untimely request for an administrative hearing was granted if the request was filed late due to excusable neglect. In 1998, Section 120.569(2)(c), Florida Statutes, was amended to provide that "A petition [request for hearing] must be dismissed if. . . it has been untimely filed."

Both before and after the 1998 statutory amendment, Florida Administrative Code Rule 28-106.111(2) and (4), has provided that a person shall file a petition for hearing within 21 days of receipt of written notice of the agency's decision and that a failure to request a hearing within 21 days constitutes a waiver of the right to a hearing.

In Cann v. Department of Children and Family Services, 813 So. 2d 237 (Fla. 2d DCA 2002), the court held that the 1998 amendment to Section 120.569(2)(c), Florida Statutes, when considered in conjunction with Florida Administrative Code Rule 28-106.111, overruled two prior cases which had found that the delays in timely requesting hearings in those cases were caused by excusable neglect and did not constitute waivers of the right to a hearing. The court held that the Canns were not entitled to a hearing on the Department's refusal to renew their license for a medical foster home since the Department received their request for a hearing one day past the deadline allowed under the Rule.

The Cann court, however, strongly expressed its belief that "[i]n administrative matters affecting substantial interests, adopting an excusable neglect standard or a time schedule based on the date of service of requests for hearing [rather than a filing date] would promote legitimate public policies." Id. at 239. The court further noted that in judicial proceedings a default can be set aside because of excusable neglect, a meritorious defense, and due diligence in seeking relief. The court acknowledged that such a doctrine promotes the public policy of having disputes decided on their merits rather than on procedural technicalities.

In Patz v. Department of Health, Case No. 3D03-1154, 2003 WL 23008852 (Fla. 3d DCA Dec. 24, 2003), the court, relying on the 1998 amendment to Section 120.569(2)(c), on Rule 28-106.111, and on the decision in Cann, affirmed the Board of Medicine's discipline of a doctor whose request for hearing was filed 43 days late. The Third District Court of Appeal, like the Second District had in Cann, called upon the Legislature to allow the doctrine of excusable neglect to be applied in administrative proceedings as it is in judicial proceedings.

By contrast, prior cases have held that the late filing of a request for an administrative hearing is not a jurisdictional defect and that the doctrine of equitable tolling can be applied to extend the administrative time limit when the petitioner has been misled or lulled into inaction, has in some extraordinary way been prevented from asserting his rights, or has timely asserted his rights mistakenly in the wrong forum. Machules v. Department of Administration, 523 So. 2d 1132 (Fla. 1988); Appel v. Florida Department of State, Division of Licensing, 734 So. 2d 1180 (Fla. 2d DCA 1999). Neither the Cann court nor the Patz court questioned the continued viability of the doctrine of equitable tolling.

Under current law, therefore, filing an untimely request for an administrative hearing is not a jurisdictional defect.

One of the two prior doctrines, equitable tolling, is still available to explain and overcome a determination that a waiver of the right to a hearing has occurred; the other prior doctrine, excusable neglect, is no longer available according to the Second and Third District Courts of Appeal. See also Whiting v. Florida Department of Law Enforcement, 849 So. 2d 1149 (Fla. 5th DCA 2003), wherein the filing of a request for hearing one day late due to a problem with the Department's fax machine was analyzed only under the doctrine of equitable tolling and not under the doctrine of excusable neglect.

Similarly, the dissent by Judge Orfinger in O'Donnell's Corporation v. Ambroise, 858 So. 2d 1138 (Fla. 5th DCA 2003), expressed at least that Judge's view that excusable neglect is no longer available in administrative proceedings.

It is recommended that the Legislature consider whether the doctrine of excusable neglect, available in judicial proceedings, be made available once again in administrative proceedings.

CONCLUSION

The Division continues to supply high-quality adjudication of disputes pursuant to Chapter 120, the Administrative Procedure Act. The Division constantly seeks ways to make the process more affordable to state agencies, and citizens and continues to expand its base to counties, cities and other users of its program in order to reduce the cost of providing services. Through the elimination of programs that prove not to be cost effective and promoting alternative dispute resolution short of hearing, the Division contributes to the goal of efficient government. We accomplish this without sacrificing quality and fairness in the Adjudication of Disputes program.

Respectfully submitted,

ROBERT S. COHEN
