Dear Governor Scott,

Pursuant to section 20.058(3), Florida Statutes, I have attached the reports provided by each of the Department's six citizen support organizations. Each of the reports are publicly available through the organizations websites. In addition, I have provided the Department's recommendation below on whether these citizen support organizations should continue, be terminated, or modified.

Citizens for Florida Arts, Inc.

Citizens for Florida Arts, Inc., was created to partner with and enhance the efforts of the Florida Division of Cultural Affairs, while helping to sustain and foster recognition of the arts in Florida. Friends of Florida History and Archaeology, Inc.

The mission of Friends of Florida History and Archaeology, Inc., is to provide assistance, funding, and promotional support to or for the direct or indirect benefit of the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources, or individual program units of the Division. It is the agency's recommendation to continue the agency's association with this newly established citizen support organization.

Friends of Florida Main Street, Inc.

The mission of the Friends of Florida Main Street, Inc., is to enhance and perpetuate the programs offered by Florida Main Street for the people of Florida. It is the agency's recommendation to terminate this citizen support organization, but incorporate the functions and the mission of the organization into the newly established Friends of Florida History and Archaeology, Inc.

Friends of Mission San Luis, Inc.

The mission of Friends of Mission San Luis, Inc. is to provide assistance, funding, and promotional support for the archaeology, museum, folk life and historic preservation programs of the Division of Historical Resources – Florida Department of State. FY 2014-2015 REPORT

I. Statutory Authority or Executive Order Creating Organization

Section 267.17, Florida Statutes provides statutory authority for the organization.

II. Mission and Results Obtained

Mission:

The mission of Friends of Florida History and Archaeology, Inc. (FFHA), is to provide assistance, funding, and promotional support to or for the direct or indirect benefit of the Department of State, Division of Historical Resources, or individual program units of the Division.

Results Obtained:

FFHA was incorporated in 2012 and received 501(c)(3) tax exempt status from the IRS on July 14, 2013. Currently, the Board of Directors of FFHA has not been appointed, and no activities have been carried out by the organization.

III. Three Year Plan

DRAFT pending approval of the Board of Directors, is as follows:

The FFHA was established with the goal of eventually bringing all of the Division citizen support organizations under one entity that supports all of the Division's programs. This approach, rather than having separate CSOs for different programs, will increase administrative efficiencies and strengthen the CSO's ability to promote and fundraise on a statewide level.

Over the next three years, the formal organization of the FFHA as the Division CSO will be completed. This will entail appointment of the Board of Directors and subsequent reorganization and consolidation of all Division CSOs under the FFHA.

IV. Code of Ethics

After appointment of the initial Board of Directors for the Friends of Florida History and Archeology Inc., the following Code of Ethics will be formally adopted.

PREAMBLE

(1) It is essential to the proper conduct and operation of Friends of Florida History and Archeology Inc. (herein "CSO") that its board members, officers, and employees be independent and impartial and that their position not be used for private gain. Therefore, the Florida Legislature in Section 112.3251, Florida Statutes, requires that the law protect against any conflict of interest and establish standards for the conduct of CSO board members, officers, and employees in situations where conflicts may exist.

(2) It is hereby declared to be the policy of the state that no CSO board member, officer, or employee shall have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or indirect, or incur any obligation of any nature which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of his or her duties for the CSO. To implement this policy and strengthen the faith and confidence of the people in Citizen Support Organizations, there is enacted a code of ethics setting forth standards of conduct required of Friends of Florida History and Archeology Inc., board members, officers, and employees in the performance of their official duties.

STANDARDS

The following standards of conduct are enumerated in Chapter 112, Fla. Stat., and are required by Section 112.3251, Florida Statutes, to be observed by CSO board members, officers, and employees.

1. Prohibition of Solicitation or Acceptance of Gifts

No CSO board member, officer, or employee shall solicit or accept anything of value to the recipient, including a gift, loan, reward, promise of future employment, favor, or service, based upon any understanding that the vote, official action, or judgment of the CSO board member, officer, or employee would be influenced thereby.

2. Prohibition of Accepting Compensation Given to Influence a Vote

No CSO board member, officer, or employee shall accept any compensation, payment, or thing of value when the person knows, or, with reasonable care, should know that it was given to influence a vote or other action in which the CSO board member, officer, or employee was expected to participate in his or her official capacity.

3. Salary and Expenses

No CSO board member or officer shall be prohibited from voting on a matter affecting his or her salary, expenses, or other compensation as a CSO board member or officer, as provided by law.

4. Prohibition of Misuse of Position

A CSO board member, officer, or employee shall not corruptly use or attempt to use one's official position or any property or resource which may be within one's trust, or perform official duties, to secure a special privilege, benefit, or exemption.

5. Prohibition of Misuse of Privileged Information

No CSO board member, officer, or employee shall disclose or use information not available to members of the general public and gained by reason of one's official position for one's own personal gain or benefit or for the personal gain or benefit of any other person or business entity.

6. Post-Office/Employment Restrictions

A person who has been elected to any CSO board or office or who is employed by a CSO may not personally represent another person or entity for compensation before the governing body of the CSO of which he or she was a board member, officer, or employee for a period of two years after he or she vacates that office or employment position.

7. Prohibition of Employees Holding Office

No person may be, at one time, both a CSO employee and a CSO board member at the same time.

8. Requirements to Abstain From Voting

A CSO board member or officer shall not vote in official capacity upon any measure which would affect his or her special private gain or loss, or which he or she knows would affect the special gain or any principal by whom the board member or officer is retained. When abstaining, the CSO board member or officer, prior to the vote being taken, shall make every reasonable effort to disclose the nature of his or her interest as a public record in a memorandum filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting, who shall incorporate the memorandum in the minutes. If it is not possible for the CSO board member or officer to file a memorandum before the vote, the memorandum must be filed with the person responsible for recording the minutes of the meeting no later than 15 days after the vote.

9. Failure to Observe CSO Code of Ethics

FY 2014-2015 REPORT

I. Statutory Authority or Executive Order Creating Organization

Section 257.43, Florida Statutes provides statutory authority for the organization.

II. Mission and Results Obtained

Mission:

The Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida, Inc. promotes and enhances the programs and services of the Division of Library and Information Services for the benefit of Florida's residents. The Friends support expanding public access to knowledge, cultural heritage and information so that Floridians achieve their personal, educational, and professional needs.

Results Obtained:

On June 27, 2014, the State Library and Archives of Florida hosted a public program to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act. A Civil Rights Retrospective: The Movement Through Photographs, was a rotating slideshow featuring historic photographs, from 1945 to 1968, held in the Florida Photographic Collection. These striking images document important individuals and highlight critical events from the Civil Rights Movement in Florida.

The event was presented to the public with support from the Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida Inc. On multiple occasions since 2009, the Friends have hosted the public at State Library and Archives of Florida slideshow events, featuring images from select collections that illuminate significant events and individuals in the state's history. Other slideshows included historic images from the Tallahassee Democrat, from world-famous photographer Joseph Janney Steinmetz, and images focusing on black history in Florida. These events are well attended, helping to educate the public and draw attention to Florida's documentary history. They also help raise awareness of the collections, services and activities provided by Florida's State Library and Archives for the benefit of Florida's residents and visitors.

The Friends received an Online Computer Library Center (OCLC)/WebJunction Project Compass: Libraries Lead the Workforce for the 21st Century grant to deliver local workforce recovery workshops to public library staff to increase their knowledge of available resources to handle the service needs of Florida's unemployed and job-seeking residents.

In the spring and early summer of 2011, public libraries in Florida hosted nine workforce recovery workshops, using training modules that emphasized job seekers, small business and entrepreneurs, and financial literacy.

The full-day, face-to-face sessions provided 172 participants from 57 Florida counties with an opportunity to share ideas about how they could provide additional services and resources for job seekers, patrons needing financial literacy information, and entrepreneurs and potential small business owners.

After completing the training, participants also joined online sessions to discuss how they were using what they had learned in the workshops. During the nine sessions in July 2011, 120 participants shared information on the workforce recovery programs being implemented in their libraries.

The Friends were awarded an Access to Justice Mini-Grant from the National Center for State Courts for the project Legal Resources for Library Patrons, to improve communication between Florida public libraries and the Florida self-help, legal aid community. The project trained Florida librarians to use floridalawhelp.org and other online legal resources, through in-person seminars and online webinars; and introduced librarians to available, local legal aid resources.

During the summer of 2010 presenters and guest experts offered three face-to-face, three-hour seminars in Florida in: Hillsborough County (Tampa), Leon County (Tallahassee) and Broward County (Ft. Lauderdale). Guest experts represented legal aid organizations, The Florida Bar, Hillsborough and Palm Beach County Law Libraries, and Florida State Courts. Team members also presented the information in a series of two statewide webinars during September 2010.

The Legal Resources for Library Patrons seminars reached or involved 108 professionals and 364,940 library patrons.

Since 2009, the Friends, in cooperation with Chief Officers of State Library Agencies, has co-sponsored Florida's representation at the Library of Congress National Book Festival's Pavilion of States in Washington, D.C. This annual event celebrates books and brings the joy of reading to hundreds of thousands of people. Representatives distribute educational materials on the history and culture of Florida, as well information on libraries and reading programs in Florida. Event organizers estimated attendance at the 2013 event at more than 200,000.

Beginning in 2007, and annually thereafter, the Friends have supplied and distributed school-age books to educate children on writings about Florida and/or Florida authors. Through Florida's Division of Library and Information Services, the Friends, partnered with the Miami Dolphins Foundation since 2008, have received annual support for the purchase of books and reading incentives for children who participating in Florida's summer reading events at public libraries.

In May 2008, the Friends of the State Library and Archives of Florida donated a microfilm reader/printer to the State Archives of Florida's research room. The previous microfilm reader/printer was outdated and no longer working, and the State Archives needed to provide its patrons with the ability to view its many valuable collections held on microfiche and microfilm.

The Friends purchased and donated a Minolta MS6000, a powerful digital imaging system that allows researchers using microfilm and microfiche to read onscreen and print on paper, and to scan and digitize documents for electronic distribution.

The Friends also support future maintenance, upkeep and repairs of this machine.

In April 2009, The Friends donated a map case to the State Library of Florida's research room to store Florida Geological Survey and census maps. These maps were previously stored in folders, laid across shelves, or stored in map tubes. The new map case now provides the public with easy access to these valuable maps held in the State Library.

In August 2011, the Friends purchased slatwall end panels to replace outdated and nonpractical shelving in the State Library and Archives of Florida's public services access area. The panels allow us to display materials and highlight and promote the valuable resources and collections, and the exceptional programs and services, offered to citizens.
