R. Philip Twogood, Coordinator
Florida Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability
111 West Madison, Room 312
Tallahassee, FL 32399-1475

Dear Mr. Twogood:

Per Florida Law, the Department of Children and Families is responsible to report to the Governor, the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Office of Program Policy Analysis and Government Accountability the status of any Citizen Support or Direct-support Organizations that are administered by the agency. Furthermore, the statute requires the department to report, by August 15 of each year, statutorily-prescribed information, per F.S. 20.058, any proceeds received from any Citizen Support or Direct-support Organization maintained via the agency website. The report must also include a recommendation by our agency on whether to continue, terminate or modify the agency's association with each organization.

In order to comply with this statute, I would like to state that the Department of Children and Families does not currently administer a Citizen Support or Direct-support Organization.

It is my privilege to answer any questions that you may have regarding compliance with this law.

Sincerely,

Mike Carroll
