Re: Annual Agency Report Pursuant to Section 20.058(3), Florida Statutes

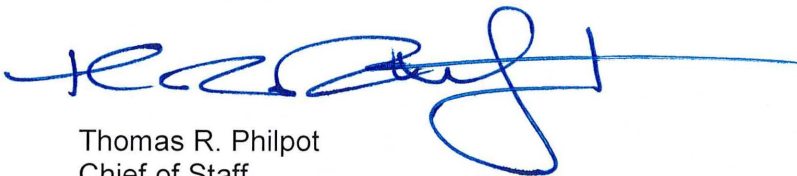

Dear Governor DeSantis:

Section 20.058(3), Florida Statutes, requires each state agency to annually report the information submitted by a citizen-support organization or direct-support organization pursuant to section 20.058(1), Florida, Statutes, and the agency's recommendations, with supporting rationale, whether to continue, terminate, or modify the agency's association with each support organization.

The Department of Business and Professional Regulation has not created, approved, or administered a citizen-support organization or a direct-support organization during the preceding year covered in this reporting period. Additionally, the Department did not contract with any citizen-support organization or direct-support organization created or authorized pursuant to law or executive order. Accordingly, the Department has no information or recommendation to report on this subject at this time.

Please contact me if additional information or clarification is needed regarding the Department's compliance with the reporting requirements of section 20.058, Florida Statutes.

Sincerely,

Thomas R. Philpot
Chief of Staff
